

National Geospatial-Intelligence Alumni Association – East Chapter

Volume 110, April 2016

From the President: We are off and running! This year we installed a new board for the East Chapter, invited a distinguished guest speaker to our Spring luncheon at NCE, sought and received several volunteers to help work actions for NGA, planned another wine tasting event, and are supporting a progressive and leading-edge agency. We have set an energizing and eventful pace!

Welcome to my first newsletter as president of the East Chapter. My first order of business is to formally thank Dave Burpee for his leadership as president of the East Chapter these past two years. He made it look easy and I still ask him many questions. Dave has moved up to the NGAA and continues to help move us forward.

I encourage you to attend our Spring and Fall luncheons. NGA is going beyond anyone's expectations by hosting us twice each year. We owe the Director, Bill, Vanessa, and many others a debt of gratitude and a heartfelt thank you.

In addition to our luncheons, please join us at our various social events. We will continue sending emails and posting events on our website (www.ngaaeast.org) in advance of our events.

I'm sure by now you know the Director's recommendation on the new NCW —much excitement about building a facility for the future. I am still awe struck each time I enter NCE...

Thanks to the efforts of the entire team at USGIF, we look forward to GEOINT 2016 this May in Orlando, Florida.

I hope you enjoy our first newsletter of 2016 and will continue supporting your association. If you have suggestions for improvements or want to get involved with our volunteer activities, please contact Ange Meoli or me. Roy Combs—President NGAA-East

NGAA—East Spring Luncheon: Save the Date and Plan to Join Us on Tuesday, May 31, 2016 at NGA Campus East!

As a special bonus, following NGA's special presentations to keep our membership informed on current initiatives and breaking news, this year's Spring Luncheon will also offer an exceptional opportunity to hear from Ambassador Robert Dillon. In addition to serving in numerous other countries, Ambassador Dillon served as Deputy Chief of Mission in Turkey during the Reagan administration and was the US Ambassador to Lebanon at the time of the suicide bomber attack on the embassy.

The flexible agenda is arranged so that those who are unable to attend the presentations can arrive in time for a group photo just before joining the group for the luncheon and Ambassador Dillon's presentation.

Seminar activities and technology will be presented at the Secret level. Those interested in accepting this opportunity to learn more about the NGA's current mission must complete the security form SF85. Completed forms must be e-mailed to reach NGA by April 29, 2016. For those members who filled out the complete form in November 2015, and nothing has changed since, they simply need to sign and scan/e-mail/FAX the "release of information authorization" - the last page on the SF-85. (All others must complete the form in full.)

The agenda, program information, and SF-85 form and instructions are provided on page 7. We hope to see you there!

NGAA-East (formerly the National Geospatial/Intelligence Alumni Association (NGIAA) and the Defense Mapping and Charting Alumni Association-DMCA founded in 1980) provides a way for current and retired DMA/NIMA/NGA employees to keep in contact and exchange information, ideas, and experiences. Currently, NGAA-East has over 400 active and associate members.

NGAA-East Fall Meeting – 16 November 2015

The Fall 2015 NGAA-E meeting at NCE began with an NGA series of briefings, hosted by NGA's Office of Corporate Communications' Greg Glewe and Vanessa Segars, with OCC's Director, Bill Caniano, providing the introductory remarks. Bill discussed that NGA and Director Cardillo have had a very busy, successful year, with 4 visits to the Hill and 2 more scheduled by the end of the year. Other notable events included a conference hosted at Georgetown University and at Aspen, a local GEOINT Symposium attended by numerous NGA personnel, and many smaller industry days and conferences. Bill indicated that with the upcoming 20th NGA anniversary in 2016, we can expect to see a series of events, including the opening of a new NGA museum in the Atrium of the NGA Campus East (NCE) in the summer of 2016. Bill indicated that he expects more cutbacks to hardcopy Pathfinders, with most content hosted on-line. He also discussed the return of many World War II maps to NGA from Bowdoin College. These maps would be hosted on-line after review. Bill also mentioned that Director Cardillo is working through a series of meetings to determine the location of the NGA Campus West. After these remarks, NGA experts discussed a series of topics:

a. Map of the World (MoW) Status: Kim Jones and Kevin Favorite: The MoW is intended to host geospatial content, services and applications. It was begun in 2013, and has rapidly expanded over the last 2 years. The MoW includes base maps, overlays, and supports tailored customer views via "My Views" capability. The MoW allows integration of both trusted geospatial data and intelligence data to allow analysts to develop new insights. The MoW is hosted on NIPR, SIPR, and JWICS domains, and has been used at the www domain to support humanitarian assistance where unclassified access is required. New capabilities include a share function which enables analysts to open multiple viewers and share views. A feedback function allows customers and partners to nominate new or corrected geospatial content which can then be evaluated and incorporated into MoW content. 13 themes of Human Geography content have begun to be populated.

b. Mission Talent Alignment (MTA): Shelby Pierson: Shelby explained that NGA would like to ensure that they have a sufficient, trained workforce ready for all existing and planned missions. Shelby explained that today, NGA has a "group of villages" that effectively support today's missions, but may not be ready for tomorrow's missions. The MTA includes a Mission Assessment, Mission Emphasis, Standard Terms (all previous location personnel agreements were pulled back), and be transparent to all. The deliverables will include a Mission Assessment, a Talent Program, and an Assignment Marketplace. Under this new construct, the KC's will define personnel competencies and resources to meet mission requirements (constrained by existing billet and band levels), and Portfolio Managers will oversee the process to ensure fairness and equities. Talent Career Services will help ensure a correct pipeline of personnel, and that the personnel have access to training and opportunities to ensure they are competitive for future positions. The Assignment Marketplace has already begun to operate. The MTA group expects to stand down in 7 months and turn the process over to existing NGA organizations to continue.

c. The Arctic: Chris Sisson: Chris explained that NGA will be putting resources into helping NGA cooperate with other US and Foreign governments to establish Arctic strategies. The group has helped develop the 2013 Arctic Strategy, and NGA now chairs the Arctic Council (2015-2017). The group is in the midst of developing a 5m post map of Alaska.

d. Climate Change: Holly Howard: Holly explained that global climate change affects National Security, and how food, water, ice, and weather all are major factors that need to be tracked as part of this initiative. Holly explained that this data can be collected from open sources or from volunteered geographic information. NGA is partnering with many other government agencies such as USAID, and the State Department on this effort.

e. Dir Cardillo Discussion: Dir Cardillo graciously provided remarks to the NGAA-E group. He remarked that he sees a very bright future given his view of the talented new GEOINT students he interacts with. He has been very busy lately, and has emphasized a new level of transparency across many aspects of NGA. Dir Cardillo emphasized some new activities such as the MTA, work to establish a new NGA Campus West, hiring Peter Hineman into Innovision, a new emphasis on In-Q-Tel funding, and his Deputy Director Sue Gordon's push to increase new technology into NGA. After the discussion, the group met to take a group photo in the Atrium.

2. NGAA-E Board Meeting. Dave Burpee opened the meeting with a presentation of the NGAA Excellence Award to Richard Barrowman. Mr. Barrowman was recognized for both his work efforts and his volunteerism and serves as a role model for NGA employees. Ed Mornston represented NGA and testified that he has worked with Mr. Barrowman personally and agrees that NGAA made an excellent decision. Each NGAA-E board member provided a quick overview of their efforts and role in the NGAA-E organization. Dave provided a special thank you to Katy Smith for her six years of dedicated support to both the NGAA-E and the NGAA organizations. The NGAA-E organization has flourished under Katy's oversight and guidance. Dave also expressed his thanks to our NGAA-E executive staff member Ange Meoli, who provides excellent and tireless support to many activities. Dave also introduced Teri Dempsey who volunteered to serve as the At Large/Secretary position from NGAA-E on the NGAA board. Al Anderson introduced special guest Bernie Shovitz, who hired Irene Fischer and provided input to the oral history of Irene Fischer's accomplishments. Dave spoke about the NGAA-E accomplishments this past year which have included increasing our membership to over 400 members, establishing an oral history program, supporting the NGA Onward Bound and Career Transition programs, supporting a Library of Congress program on Women in Mapping, and social events such as the wine tastings, happy hours, and luncheons. Dave then discussed the results of the NGAA-E elections. Roy Combs will serve as the President, Joe Steel as the President-Elect, Dennis Drum as Vice President, Sharon Flowers as Secretary, and Paul Mich as Treasurer. All were congratulated on the start of their two year term. Roy thanked Dave for his excellent stewardship as the NGAA-E president for the past two years, and expressed an eagerness to start his term. The group enjoyed an excellent lunch at the Banneker Room. After the meeting adjourned, NGA indicated that the NGAA-E members were free to mingle with the Small Sat conference attendees and listen to the conference in the overflow room in the Atrium.

NGAA Excellence Award to Richard Barrowman —

"In recognition of your selfless service to NGA and the DNI Community as testified to by your professional leadership and team-building and partnering expertise. Your professional accomplishments are accompanied by your contribution to the community through your volunteer work with the National Disabled Veterans, the Urology Center of Colorado, Habitat for Humanity, and other charities."

NGAA Wine-Tasting and Lunch April 28, 2016

NGAA members and guests, and all former NGA and heritage employees and contractors are invited to participate April 28 at Hiddencroft Vineyards outside Lovettsville, VA. This charming winery, www.hiddencroftvineyards.com, was founded in May 2008 by husband and wife Clyde and Terry Housel who came from long careers with NGA and its predecessors

The event will start at noon. Depending on the weather and number of attendees, the event will be in the old farm house, rustic barn, or large barrel-shaped patio. The cost is $20 per person which includes the wine-tasting fee and picnic lunch. Unused funds are used to provide door prizes where the winners can select their favorite wine. NGAA-E will sponsor the first drink purchased by members!

Registration closes April 22, 2016. Invite your friends. Great recruiting opportunity! Encourage your former coworkers to join NGAA-E.

For more information contact Paul Mich at (571)287-1707 or Paulfmich@aol.com. Make checks payable to Paul Mich. Mail $20 per person (include names of guests) to:

NGAA MEMBERSHIP

RECRUIT A FRIEND!

Members of the NGAA-East Chapter Executive Board often hear the following question: How can I help?

For many, unfortunately, the various answers – serve on a committee, attend meetings, write an article, etc. – don't fit with the particular individual's interests or abilities (e.g. live too far away to attend a meeting). There is one thing, however, that each member can do and that is to recruit another member. After all, those potential members are actually our friends and acquaintances that we've already spent many years of our lives with! Our rolls are close to 400 strong now and if in the next year we each brought in one person we would be at more than 800 ensuring a strong, vibrant, and stable foundation for our association. Hopefully each of you can commit to bringing a friend or professional acquaintance into the group.

When you approach someone they will of course ask: What does it cost and what are the benefits?

To assist you, some “talking points” are provided below. If you have questions or if your friend(s) want to talk with someone else about membership, please contact a member of the NGAA-E Executive Board. THANKS in advance for your active recruitment on behalf of NGAA-East. Your efforts are really helping as evidenced by the large increase in NGAA-E membership recently!

- ◆ Cost is $40 for lifetime membership
- ◆ Periodic newsletter to stay in touch with activities involving all NGAA and other alumni groups
- ◆ Roster with contact information of all members (not to be shared outside the membership)
- ◆ Spring and fall luncheons, one or both of which are held at NGA at their invitation. Typically coincide with award ceremonies and/or optional classified presentations (attendees required to apply for one-day interim Secret clearances)
- ◆ Annual NGAA-East selection of an "NGA East Employee of the Year" from NGA nominees who have contributed significantly to the Agency's mission and their community. Selection is from NGA Campus East nominees
- ◆ Opportunity to serve on committees that will interact with NGA on a variety of topics
- ◆ Opportunity to serve on committees that will interact with the United States Geospatial Intelligence Foundation (USGIF) on a variety of topics
- ◆ Opportunity to have input on issues brought to NGAA-East by NGA, e.g. development of an annual calendar to mark Agency milestones
- ◆ Opportunities for professional contributions to NGA's Pathfinder magazine as well as submissions to NGA paper/electronic internal employee communication capabilities
- ◆ Official venue to provide artifacts and/or memorabilia about NGA and predecessor organizations to NGA, USGIF, the Spy Museum and others □ Support to NGA exhibits and displays
- ◆ Ability to nominate former employees to the NGA Hall of Fame
- ◆ Interface with other Intelligence Community alumni groups through the Intelligence Community Alumni Network (ICAN); provides additional linkage with former colleagues
- ◆ Access to Chapter information (and applications) at www.ngaaeast.org

For Prospective Members The Constellation Federal Credit Union (CFCU) has agreed to sponsor the NGAA-East chapter. The CFCU will pay the current $40.00 NGAA-East chapter lifetime membership fee for any new applicant who has been a Credit Union member in good-standing for a minimum of two years, if the CFCU has not previously funded the applicant's membership in the Association of Mapping Seniors. The agreement provides that the CFCU will also support special NGAA functions from time-to-time.

We thank CFCU for its support. Please visit the CFCU website, <https://www.constellationfcu.org>, to learn more about their services.

NGAA and NGA's Pathfinder Magazine

As many of you may have noted, the Pathfinder – NGA's corporate magazine – has published articles about our NGA Alumni Association. These articles reflect the excellent rapport between NGAA and NGA, but more importantly are a result of the quality of suggested articles from our membership. NGAA will continue to have opportunities to submit articles for consideration by the Pathfinder. All submissions must be of the highest professional caliber and meet the publication requirements announced by the Pathfinder (e.g. number of words). NGAA members will be notified by e-mail about future opportunities, including more detailed data about the submissions, especially for any desired focus areas. Please watch for notification of publication opportunities and consider sharing your knowledge and experience. Any articles submitted that are not accepted by the NGAA Board of Directors or that are not published by the Pathfinder will be candidates for publication on the NGAA-E website. In fact, articles can be submitted at any time for that purpose. Contact the NGAA Webmaster, ngaaeastexec@aol.com for approval.

In Loving Memory

We are always saddened to learn of the deaths of our long-time members as well as spouses, friends, and colleagues with whom some of us have worked throughout our careers. Our heartfelt condolences go out to their loved ones, and friends. Please keep them in your thoughts and prayers.

LTC David F. Jones USA (Ret), 86, of Melbourne passed away surrounded by his family on Friday January 29, 2016. Born in Virginia, MN April 9, 1929; Departed on January 29, 2016 in Palm Bay, FL.

A Veteran of Korea and Vietnam, he served in the Third Infantry Division and Special Security Group, ACSI; he was a member of the Association of Intelligence Officers. After retiring from the Army, Dave served as Director of Special Security for the Defense Mapping Agency in Washington, DC.

He moved to Brevard in the early 80's where he retired from DBA Systems in Melbourne. Survivors include his wife of 32 years Maureen, sons David (Pam) Jones, and Brian James, daughters Sue Jones (Dottie Stackhouse), Sarah (Bill) Olarte and Julie James (Patrice Mothion), grandchildren Kristina Olarte, Jessica Utu and Amanda Avalos great-grandchildren Rylan and Tali.

A Funeral Mass will be held at The Ft Myer Chapel Followed by burial at Arlington National Cemetery with full military honors later this summer.

Donations in his memory may be made to the Parkinson's Foundation.

Riley Treadway Folsom, died peacefully at home in Stanwood, Washington, on Sunday, December 13, 2015. He was surrounded by the love of his family. Riley was born on September 12, 1924 in Pensacola, Florida, and was the only child of Lucile and Crawford Folsom. Theirs was a Navy family, moving frequently. Eventually, the family settled in Seattle where Riley graduated from Queen Anne High School in 1942. This is also where he met the love of his life, Eudora Isbell, and they were married in 1944. Their family grew rapidly, and Riley found himself the proud father of six daughters.

Riley enlisted in the Navy shortly after his high school graduation and soon realized his childhood dream of becoming a Naval Aviator. He served in the Aleutians during WWII and was stationed all over the country during his twenty-seven year career, including tours at NAS Whidbey (VPB-131, VP-4).

After Riley retired from the Navy at the rank of Captain in 1969, he and Eudora returned to Washington State, where he began his second career. In 1970, he earned his Master's Degree in History from the University of Washington, and later began teaching at Skagit Valley College in Oak Harbor. He retired for the second time after thirteen years, and after snowbirding for a time, he and Eudora moved full time to Phoenix, Arizona where Riley could indulge in his favorite pastime - golf. They returned to Washington State in 2004, to be near their daughters, residing in Snohomish County.

Riley was blessed with a large and loving family, and they will miss his sweet, funny, comforting presence in their lives. Riley is survived by Eudora, his loving wife of seventy-one years; daughters Kathleen Folsom, Carol (David) Brown, Deborah (Kelly) Koontz, Andrea (Ron) Gann, and Martha (Tim) Folsom; thirteen grandchildren, twenty-six great-grandchildren, and three great-great-grandchildren. He was preceded in death by his parents, stepfather Tony Barker, and daughter Laura Lucile Folsom.

A Celebration of Riley's life was held on Saturday, January 9, in the Beachwood Lounge at Warm Beach Senior Community in Stanwood. In lieu of flowers, donations in Riley's memory can be made to Providence Hospice and Home Care of Snohomish County, 2731 Wetmore Avenue, Suite 500, Everett, WA 98201.

Dino Anthony Brugioni, 93, passed away Friday, September 25, 2015 of natural causes, at his home in Fredericksburg. Mr. Brugioni, a son of Italian immigrants, was a native of Missouri who attended schools in Bevier and Jefferson City. During World War II, he served in the Army Air Corps, flying 66 bombing and numerous reconnaissance missions over Europe. He received the Purple Heart, nine Air Medals and a Presidential Citation. After the war, he received B.A. and M.A. degrees from George Washington University.

Joining the newly formed Central Intelligence Agency in 1948, Mr. Brugioni became an expert in Soviet industrial installations. In 1955, he was selected as a member of the cadre of founding fathers of the National Photographic Interpretation Center (NPIC). As an NPIC senior officer, he was involved in the exploitation of U-2, SR-72 and satellite imagery in strategic and crisis situations.

In 1949, Mr. Brugioni married Theresa Harich. Together they had two children, Theresa B. Tabak of Atlanta, Georgia, and John P. Brugioni, of Manassas, Virginia. Theresa died in 2004. Mr. Brugioni is survived by his children, six grandchildren, three great-grandchildren, his sister Arlene Schwaller and his brother Delmo Brugioni.

In his professional life, Mr. Brugioni received many awards for his work, including a citation from President John F. Kennedy for his performance during the Cuban Missile Crisis. He was also awarded the CIA Intelligence Medal for Merit, the CIA Career Intelligence Medal, and the prestigious Pioneer in Space Medal for his role in the development of satellite reconnaissance. He was twice awarded the Sherman Kent Award, the CIA's top award for outstanding contributions to the literature of intelligence. During his career with the CIA and during his retirement, Mr. Brugioni published five books and over 100 articles, mainly on the application of overhead imagery to intelligence and related fields. His first book, Eyeball to Eyeball, is the definitive account of the thirteen days of the Cuban Missile Crisis in October 1962. His monograph The Holocaust Revisited: A Retrospective Analysis of the Auschwitz-Birkenau Extermination Complex, revealed and analyzed photographs of the death camp in operation. A Civil War buff, he wrote extensively on the war in the West, including The Civil War in Missouri: As Seen from the Capital City. His last book, Eyes in the Sky: Eisenhower, the CIA and Cold War Aerial Espionage, was published in 2010.

It was Mr. Brugioni's joy to share his extensive knowledge with others, from high school students to intelligence professionals. He lectured at more than fifty colleges and universities, as well as military organizations, societies and industrial organizations. In 2002, he was a member of the ten-person U.S. delegation to Havana to commemorate the fortieth anniversary of the Cuban Missile Crisis.

On April 13, 2005, he was inducted into the National Geospatial Intelligence Agency's Hall of Fame.

Mr. Brugioni remained active and actively interested in the lives of his large extended family and many friends. He took great pleasure in relaying news, always enriched with anecdotes and humor, via phone calls and email. As one of his nephews has remarked, "There's some great storytelling going on in heaven today." Funeral services and inurnment will take place at Arlington National Cemetery in Spring 2016. Memorial donations may be made to the Gary Sinise Foundation (<https://donate.garysinisefoundation.org/>) or the Fredericksburg Regional Food Bank (<http://www.fredfood.org>).

Richard Anthony Beck

Born: July 17, 1944

It is with great sadness that the family of Dick Beck announces his passing on March 28 from complications of Mantle Cell Lymphoma.

A native of Monongahela, Pennsylvania, Dick was born on July 17, 1944, to Tony and Millie Beck. His professional career spanned 35 years with the National Imagery and Mapping Agency, now known as the National Geospatial-Intelligence Agency, during which he helped map post-revolutionary Ethiopia, worked on the lunar landings, and earned the Meritorious Civilian Service Award. He enjoyed his later years in Swansboro, NC, Melbourne, FL, and Raleigh, NC. He was a lover of fast cars and Maryland crabs. He was an accomplished wood carver and loved building with his grandsons.

Dick is survived by his wife of 46 years, Marilyn Beall Beck; his son, Joel Ankney (Jennifer); his daughter, Claudia Cooper (Murray); his grandsons, Joshua (Caitlin), Joseph, Jacob, and Jesse Ankney, and William and Henry Cooper; and his sister, Janet McCutcheon (Jeff). He was preceded in death by his parents.

A celebration of his life was held on April 1 at Hudson Funeral Home. A private committal will be held at a later date.

The family would like to thank Dr. Michael Spiritos and the nurses and staff at Duke Raleigh Hospital.

In lieu of flowers, contributions may be made to the American Cancer Society.

George A. Pelletiere, passed on to eternal life on February 27, 2016. He is preceded in death by his wife of 50 years, Anita Pelletiere on January 16, 2015. They were born and married in New York City. In 1965 they relocated to Washington D.C., where George was employed for more than 30 years with the United States Defense Department as a civil service employee. He worked in numerous agencies such as the Defense Mapping Agency and the Central Intelligence Agency.

In 1996, they retired to Charleston, SC. They are survived by two daughters, Liana Lewis (Dickerson, MD), Courtney Dyer (Charleston, SC), and three grandchildren, Alexis Lewis (Dickerson, MD) and Cameron and Jacob Dyer (Charleston, SC).

Richard K. Burkard, Lt Col USAF (Ret.), died on Thursday, December 24, 2015 of Ft. Belvoir, VA. Beloved husband of Anne Corcoran Burkard; father of Peggy McVicar (Doug), Maureen Higgins (Steve), John Burkard (Anne), Michael Burkard (Denise), Martin Burkard and the late Mary Ellen Davis (David); grandfather of Kelly McVicar Lynn, Ryan Davis, Matthew McVicar, Patrick Davis, Maggie McVicar, Brian Burkard, Shannon Davis, Melissa Davis, Kayla Burkard, Owen Burkard, Grace Burkard, Sean Burkard and Joel Burkard; great-grandfather of Brady Lynn. Mass of Christian Burial at Good Shepherd Catholic Church, 8710 Mt. Vernon Memorial Hwy., Alexandria, VA 22309 on Wednesday, December 30, 2015 at 10:30 a.m.

Inurnment Arlington National Cemetery at a later date. In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made to the Good Shepherd Housing and Family Services.
